Examination and Grading Regulations

Academic session: 2026-27 | Status: Approved (fictional test data) | Version: 1.0

1. Applicability

These regulations apply to undergraduate students at Fictional Northstar University in academic session 2026-27.

2. Passing criteria

A student must earn at least 40 out of 100 total marks in each course, including at least 16 out of 40 marks in the end-semester written examination where applicable.

3. Continuous assessment

The standard theory-course evaluation uses 60 marks of continuous assessment and 40 marks of end-semester written examination.

4. Revaluation

Students may apply for revaluation within 10 calendar days after declaration of the result. The sample regulation does not specify a revaluation fee.

5. Backlog examination

Students who fail a course may register for a backlog examination in the next scheduled examination cycle, subject to the published backlog registration notice.

6. Attendance linkage

Examination eligibility is subject to the separate Student Attendance Policy. The Examination Cell cannot waive attendance rules.
